Geo. White went to Brookville on Monday, to take charge of Ober, Wilson & Co's store in that place during a short lay off given to Mr. Amos.

Messrs. McFarlane & White are the members of the new firm dealing in hides, furs, etc. Their warehouse on Fifth street is about completed.

Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye!!! Right this way, all you who are hunting bargains, never were such bargains offered in Salina as now at Ober, Wilson & Co's.

We would recommend anybody wanting clothing made to order, to call on E. J. Mac at his new stand, on Santa Fe avenue, two doors south of Geis' bank.

For sale, a farm of 160 acres, with house and stable, —75 acres broken, 80 acres in wheat. Terms—$1,000—$500 down, balance on long time. Enquire at this office.

If you want good work in the line of boot and shoemaking, call upon H. J. Ostheimer, successor to L. J. Grant, at the old Stand. Prices reasonable and to suit all.

Some of the Minneapolis people are beginning to wonder whether that K. P. band will be built. The news with reference thereto has not been very pleasing of late.

Mr. Uria Gebhart, brother-in-law to Mr. Jacob Gebhart—late of Montgomery county, Ohio, has purchased Mr. Elijah Hubbard's farm of 240 acres in the Salina valley.

A number of gentlemen engaged in New Years calling, hired the elegant two-seated rig of Wm. Clarkson, to which was attached his four white horses, and sailed about in grand style.

One come—one come, and be convinced that the Delmonico Restaurant, kept by W. P. Thacher, is the best restaurant in the West. Down goes the price of regular meals to only thirty-five cents.

The editors of the JOURNAL extend their warmest sympathies to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coombs, of Brookville, in the loss of their promising young son, Eddie, who died last Monday morning.

Gypsum creek neighborhood has a first-class scandal. An unfaithful husband, an irate wife, was the first scene; an arrested husband, a reluctant and suppliant wife, was the closing scene.

Several Ohio gentlemen who were in Kansas last summer inspecting land, are offering their property in the former state for sale, with a view of locating in this vicinity in the sheep business.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the M. E. church next Sabbath, January 6th at the close of the morning services, being the first Sabbath of the week of prayer. The pastor desires all members of the congregation to attend.

Quite an interest is taken in a neighborhood southeast from Salina, over a prospective elopement. So far the expectant bride's father is ahead and cannot be prevailed upon to "sleep while the bird is flown."

The members of the Christian Church are straightening up the indebtedness incurred by the building as fast as the work is done. As soon as the building is completed there will be no debt hanging over it.

It is incumbent upon the good people of Salina to lay aside their worriment over the great financial questions of the nation and study ways and means to put the roads leading into the city in some kind of shape.

The weather finally straightened itself, and is now passing fine. The roads are rough, of course—fully as vexatiously so as the celebrated one of Jordan. Trade has not been resumed to any alarming extent, as yet.

Many new pledges were made with reference to reformation in bad habits, last Tuesday, but generally with the mental reservation, which often terminated in audible expression, that this "time don't count." Bad human nature.

Ten lbs. good brown sugar for $1.00. Four lbs. best Rio coffee for $1.00. Five lbs. good Rio coffee for $1.00. Coal oil 25 cents a gallon, at Yungfleisch & Co's.

Parties who came down from Salina the first of the week, report a great deal of the wheat in Saline and Dickinson counties under water.—Manhattan Nationalist.

We do not know of any wheat in Saline county which is under water.

The dance given by the Athletic Club at their hall on Monday evening was the pleasantest party of the season. Some eighteen couples of young people were present, and all unite in words of commendation of the affair. The club will probably give not her party this month.

E. E. Swanson, late clerk at Sargent & Bates' store, has become salesman in the store of Skancke & Hegglund, at Lindsborg. Emanuel is a very popular, reliable young man who deserves success and will undoubtedly attain it. Our best wishes go with him to his new location.

We have added to our boot and shoe department a line of French and American calf skins, oak and hemlock sole leather and shoemaking findings, to which we invite the attention of the trade. We propose to duplicate Kansas City prices. Goods sent by express.

OBER, WILSON & CO.

Prof. F. C. Harvey, formerly principal of our public schools, now a resident of Kansas City, was in town the first of the week. He has formed a partnership with Prof. F. M. Hamilton, in the law and loan business—the partnership dating from the first of the month. Prof. Harvey will return to Salina with his lady the last of this month.

The Salina Cornet Band saluted the new year with an open air concert, which took place upon the porch of the City Hotel building, last Tuesday afternoon. The melody was delightful. About $100 was subscribed for the benefit of the band, and most of it paid in, which will be used in paying Prof. Eagan's charges for instruction.

Mr. B. McFarlane, of Eureka township left for Wisconsin on Tuesday of last week, having received a dispatch that his brother, well known in Gypsum creek vicinity, had been fatally wounded.

Oscar Sanden, while on his way to his home last Thursday evening, fell into one of the coal rooms in front of the Opera House, injuring himself somewhat. It was a very dark night. Luckily he was not severely injured. The city has taken steps to make that piece of territory safer for pedestrians, and will avoid the possibility of being held for damages.

In this paper will be found the advertisement of H. C. Yungfleisch & Co. This firm has lately gone into business here, but is already gaining a large trade. The gentlemen composing the house are men of abundant means, so placed as to sell goods at the lowest cash prices. They are pleasant people to do business with and we predict that they will figure as one of the most prominent firms of this portion of the State.

The management of the M. E. church lecture course have concluded to sell reserved seats to purchasers of tickets for Gen. Kilpatrick's lecture on Saturday evening, January 19th, without extra charge. A diagram of all the seats in the church will be made and the purchasers of tickets can select and hold such seats as they desire. The tickets will be on sale at Whitehead & Seaman's book store, on and after Monday, January 7th. From all appearances there will be a rush for seats.

According to the Commonwealth the following Salina gentlemen have agreed to contribute articles to the State Historical Society, on topics mentioned below: O. P. Hamilton, "The Great American Desert;" August Bondi, "Personal Experiences and Incidents in Kansas from April 1865;" David Beebe, History of the Herd Law in Kansas;" R. H. Bishop, "First Settlement in Saline county;" L. F. Parsons, "Personal Experiences in the Early History of Kansas;" R. D. Mobley, of Minneapolis, is to give the "Early History of the country West of Manhattan."

There is to be a grand Coyote hunt on Tuesday, January 8th, west of Salina. The east line to be on Dry creek; the west line, about on a line with the residence of H. H. Nash. The south line, south of railroad about on line with Norton's. The north line, along the road passing in front of D. S. Brothen's residence. The hunt of these wolves is somewhere south of Dr. Crowley's farm, west of town. Their depredations are committed within limits mentioned above. All sportsmen are cordially invited to attend. We have the promise of several greyhounds. Lines to move in at 9 a. m. precisely, signal to be given by firing once by the marshal of east line, to be repeated along the lines.

Those were indeed pleasant evening entertainments given by the ladies of the Catholic Church on Friday and Saturday evenings last. The weather was decidedly unpleasant, and hence the attendance was not so large as was expected. On Friday evening those in attendance were favored with a superior musical programme, under the direction of Prof. J. B. Dalden. Miss Emma Kleinfeld's performance upon the piano was superb and brilliant. Among her selections "Silvery Waves," "Rolling Billows," and "Charge of the Hussars." Mrs. Schwartz and Prof. Dalden favored the company with a gallop—four hands in the vigorous and perfect time of those players. Miss Katie Cantwell sang in a charming manner, "Strangers Yet," "Come with me," and "Ah, I have sight." Julius Low also assisted in the musical entertainment with some finely executed pieces on the violin, accompanied with the piano by Prof. Dalden. Saturday evening, about 9 o'clock, Miss Yungfleisch and Messrs. George Yungfleisch, Julius Low and Al. Sanden supplied some pleasant dance music, and the young folks tripped the light fantastic for about 5 hours. We have not learned the amount cleared.

Nature seemed inclined to be in a pleasant mood on New Years day, for a passably warm sun served to make the atmosphere somewhat genial, while roads (though rough) had been hardened by frost and the cold air of the night before. It was really a very pleasant day compared with the weather of a month's duration which had just past and was remembered as most frightfully dismal. The business places were all open, but little attention was paid to business, for people's thoughts were with dinners and entertainments in prospect, while in point of fact there was very little business to attend to, anyway. Outside of the usual dinner parties and the very excellent concert in the evening, there was quite a number of gentlemen who made calls, and this leads us to speak of the ladies who were prepared to receive them. Mrs. Faulkner received at her home, on Tenth street.

Miss Perry at the residence of Mr. F. C. Jackson on Ninth street.

Rev. and Mrs. Dearborn at their residence on Seventh street.

Mrs. H. F. Woolley, informally, at her home on Ninth street.

At the residence of Mr. W. Clarkson, Mrs. R. T. Watson, Miss Lou Van Zant, and Miss Jennie Wright received with Mrs. Clarkson and her mother, Mrs. Rose, and Miss Lillie Clarkson.

Mrs. C. A. Hiller and Miss Mary Blodgett received callers at the residence of their mother, on Iron avenue.

Mrs. Campbell and her daughters, Miss Campbell and Miss Mary, at their home on Ninth street.

Mrs. B. J. F. Hanna and her daughters, Mrs. Damm and Miss Lillie Hanna, at their home on Ninth street.

Mrs. W. S. Warner and her daughter, Miss Nellie, received their friends.

Mrs. Oscar Seitz and Mrs. Leig at the residence of Mr. Oscar Seitz on Santa Fe avenue.

Misses Linda, Minnie, Ella, Clara and Amy Berks received with their mother at the residence of Maj. J. W. Berks on Santa Fe avenue.

Miss Katie Cantwell received at the residence of W. R. Geis.

Mrs. Ober and Mrs. Aldrich received with Mrs. B. L. Wilson.

At the residence of A. J. Schwartz were Mrs. Schwartz, Mrs. N. F. Carroll, Mrs. Frank Wikeson, and Mrs. W. R. Geis.

The Misses Maxey and Mrs. Weaver received at the Maxey House.

Mrs. J. G. Spivey, and Mrs. S. Seaman received with Mrs. M. D. Sampson.

At the residence of Mr. D. Whitehead, callers were met by a number of charming little Misses, the company of Miss Effie Whitehead.

Mrs. Jeffries received informally at the Pacific House.

Miss Mattie Grier received at the residence of her parents on Santa Fe avenue.

St Valentine's Day.

The ladies of the Lutheran Church are preparing to hold a festival on the eve of February 14th, next.

Headquarters.

For Holiday Goods will again be at A. T. Grier's, No. 124, west side Santa Fe Avenue. An elegant and varied assortment.

The concert given for the benefit of the Christian church, on New Years evening, at the M. E. church, was an agreeable ending of the festivities of the beautiful and happy New Year day. The programme included some very fine selections, which were well rendered by the singers. The church was crowded with an appreciative audience who enjoyed the entertainment throughout. We give below the programme:

On the Mountain High, solo, J. E. Griswold. How the Beautiful Gates Came Along, duo with guitar accompaniment, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lovitt. If Papa was Only Ready, solo, J. E. Griswold. Chorus of Heather Bells and March, Twenty-five Little Girls, J. E. Griswold.

Let All They, solo, J. E. Griswold. Shadows on the Stream, solo and quartette, Mrs. R. E. Nickles, Miss Lou Van Zant, Howard C. Raab, R. A. Lovitt. Broken Down, humorous solo, Jerome B. Criswell. Darning of a Better Day, quartette, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mrs. R. A. Lovitt, J. E. Griswold, R. A. Lovitt.

Piano Solo, Mrs. R. A. Lovitt. On the Banks of the Pearl, solo and quartette, Misses R. E. Nickles, J. E. Griswold, R. A. Lovitt, Howard C. Raab, R. A. Lovitt. Grandfather's Clock, solo, Mrs. C. W. Jones. Bird of Beauty, duet, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Miss Lou Van Zant.

Guitar Solo, Mrs. R. A. Lovitt. Peter Grey, humorous solo, R. A. Lovitt. Speak not the Bad Words, solo, Mrs. R. A. Lovitt. The Bell of Saragossa, duet, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clarkson.

Dearest Starlight, quartette, Miss Carrie Dearborn, Mrs. L. W. Bates, J. W. Aldrich, R. A. Lovitt, J. E. Griswold, J. W. Jones, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mrs. R. A. Lovitt, J. W. Aldrich, R. A. Lovitt. Two Forest Nymphs, duet, Miss Carrie Dearborn, Mrs. L. W. Bates, J. W. Aldrich, R. A. Lovitt, J. E. Griswold, J. W. Jones, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mrs. R. A. Lovitt, J. W. Aldrich, R. A. Lovitt.

Avril Clever, humorous solo, F. Q. Bond. We'll have to manage the Party, duo with guitar accompaniment, Mrs. R. A. Lovitt, J. W. Aldrich, R. A. Lovitt. Grandfather's Clock, solo, Mrs. C. W. Jones. Bird of Beauty, duet, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Miss Lou Van Zant.

The Week of Prayer will be observed by the churches of our city in union services, at the Presbyterian church, commencing next Sabbath evening, and closing the following Sabbath evening's service. Rev. Mr. Lockwood will preach the opening sermon, and Rev. Mr. Carr the closing sermon. It is hoped that the business places will close early during the week. The following is the programme of topics for the week, recommended by the American Board of the Evangelical Alliance:

Sabbath, January 6.—Sermons—Christian union perfected. Rev. Mr. Lockwood. Monday, January 7.—Prayer and Praise—Remembrance of personal and relative merits. Prayer for the Divine blessing on past privileges and for an humble and contrite spirit.

Tuesday, January 8.—Prayer—For the Church of Christ in all lands; for its deliverance from error; for its increase in faith and holiness; and in power as a witness for the Lord Jesus Christ; for the grace and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Wednesday, January 9.—Prayer—For Christian Families—for sick and afflicted members; for children at school, and for all youth in our colleges and seminaries of learning; for young men entering upon the active business of life, and for those abroad; for our sons and daughters cheerfully consecrating Christ.

Thursday, January 10.—Prayer—For Nations—for rulers, magistrates, and statesmen; for the Army and Navy; for all benevolent and philanthropic institutions; for religious liberty and the opening of doors "wide and effectual" for publishing the gospel; and for the reign of righteousness and peace.

Friday, January 11.—Prayer—For Christian Missions to the Jews and Gentiles; for Sunday-schools, and for Divine blessings on all Christian efforts to spread the glad tidings of the gospel of salvation.

Saturday, January 12.—Prayer—For the Circulation of the Bible; for the observation of the Sabbath; for the removal of intemperance; for the rescue of the fallen; for the safety of those who travel by land and by water.

Sabbath, January 13.—Sermons—Christian life. "Let your light shine."

Gen'l Judson Kilpatrick.

This distinguished orator, and gallant soldier will lecture in the M. E. church lecture course of Salina, on Saturday evening, January 19th, subject, "Sherman's March to the Sea."

The fame of Gen'l Kilpatrick extends throughout the country—both for his daring leadership as a cavalry officer and for the interesting nature of his lecture. As the Burlington (Vt.) Paper says: "He captivates all listeners by the nervous impetuosity of his speech, the dramatic splendor and vividness of his descriptions of the war."

Tickets, 50 cents; no extra charge for reserved seats. Tickets for sale by Whitehead & Seaman after Monday, January 7. Diagram of seats furnished.

Brookville Items.

From Our Correspondent.

"Old Sol" has been out of sight (until yesterday, 31st Dec.) for nearly a week, which gave us the best winter weather of the season.

The roads are drying up. A good many teams are coming into town, which for a week or two have been mud bound, and which gives our grain buyers a chance again to display—"well I am at a loss for a word, we'll let them make the application."

I am called upon again so soon to write of death, the "grim monster." This time he took "Ebbie," the pet of the family of Mr. J. M. Coombs. The funeral was managed by the Old Fellows of this place. There was the largest turnout that was ever seen in Brookville.

The family, from what I have seen, have the sympathy of every one. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. T. B. Dooley, and I must say that the leading impression left after hearing him is that he is a perfect "old father."

His sermon was a very appropriate effort.

The school board of this district has been investing their surplus funds in a very laudable purchase—a bell for the school house, and by the way I must state a coincidence connected with the bell. Away up in the belfry the only name painted by himself is Elbert Coombs, and the first time the bell was tolled was for him.

Business has been rather dull for the past week, owing to the bad weather, but to-day saw more teams in town than for several days.

There was a little stir in town last week in the appointment of an administrator and the hunting up the effects of the late S. Muligan.

Mr. P. Dill was appointed administrator.

The gay and festive went to a dance at the Cooley school house on Friday night last. The boys had to jump out in a mud hole and haul their wagon by hand. Another party is starting out to-night for the Light School house, where there is to be a "hop."

EDITORS JOURNAL.—The closing of the old and the entering upon a new year is a very important occurrence. It suggests reflections and retrospection, and brings with it new duties and anxieties. To the gay it is a time of hilarity and festivities. To children it is a harvest of good things. In the cities, especially at the capital of the United States—it is a time for the adjustment of personal animosities. The books are opened anew, on the score of friendship. It is a pausing and turning point in business affairs, and is, therefore, a dreaded time to delinquent creditors; but to the individual who is able to "square off" it should be a happy time. Deferred payments have been shoved off until they can be shoved no further. The holder of one's paper proclaims with emphasis and with feeling that time is no more. It is a sort of typical judgment or doom-day. The credit system is leveled against. Resolutions are passed unanimously. Placards are posted and hung up stating that "credit is dead." If it ever died has it not had many resurrections? Or has it lain in state or ignominy all these years? At any rate, its ghost appears periodically to frighten and to warn.

And to any of us that may be much in arrears it is an unghostly ghost, for it not only makes our nights hideous by visions of agonized and agonizing creditors, but haunts our waking hours and intrudes itself into the active duties of the day. And it will not down at our bidding. Because nothing will appease it, but greenbacks or some monetized tender. Not long ago the rebelled south and their sympathizers claimed that "by-gones should be by-gones." What a splendid financial stroke that would be for many western farmers. How magnanimous, how sublime. Freed from the shackles and bondage of debt and with their accumulated experiences of years, they might make colossal strides toward prosperity and wealth. But let "justice be done though the Heavens fall," and the tillers of the soil trod on and learn to labor and to wait.

Our community, at least, bears testimony that the merchant and other creditors of Salina are gentlemanly and indulgent, and deserve not only their pay but the gratitude of their customers.

LEARNER ON THE GYMN.

Across the Saline.

Ordinarily this part of the country is close to town; but when the distance is viewed through those infernal mud holes, it seems a long distance, and I think money would be better spent in fixing our roads, than in building new bridges.

The people of School District No. 11 met at the district school house about four weeks ago, and organized a debating society, to meet every Thursday evening at half past 6. The meetings have been well attended, and for country gatherings well behaved. We also have a Sabbath School each Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock, of which Mr. M. S. Price is superintendent, and a very earnest and able one he makes. If he continues to have the support he should, he will make it of lasting benefit to this part of the country.

JIM CROW.

Good Results.

Are always pleasant to contemplate, as every dyspeptic sufferer who uses Parker's Ginger Tonic will attest. To obtain from this remedy the gratifying relief when distressed with headache, loss of spirits, nervousness, wakefulness, pain in stomach, palpitation of the heart, liver disorders, costiveness, heartburn, cramps, etc., is a pleasant experience that surprises no less than it comforts. Another remarkable feature of this remedy is its powerful specific action on the skin and mucous surfaces of the throat and lungs, by which it unfailingly cures the worst cases of cough, cold and sore throat. It cures in a wonderfully short time, removes all soreness from lungs and protects the feeble from consumption. Buy a $1 bottle from your druggist, O. Seitz, or a sample bottle for 15 cts and test its merits.

"The Golden Belt" Route.

The quickest, safest and most reliable route to all points East and West is the KANSAS PACIFIC RAILWAY, through the famous "Golden Belt" (the finest wheat country in the world). Passengers for Denver and the Rocky Mountains should remember that this is 120 miles the shortest, 25 miles the quickest, and the only line running through to Denver without change of cars. Going East, close connections are made at Kansas City and Leavenworth with all the great through routes for all points East, North and South. The favorite line to the San Juan mines. Passengers taking the KANSAS PACIFIC can stop over at Denver and visit the mines and smelting works in its vicinity. Close connection made with the Denver & Rio Grande Railway for Colorado Springs, La Veta, Del Norte and Lake City. The only line west of the Missouri River equipped with the Westinghouse Automatic Air Brake. Freight shippers, attention! The KANSAS PACIFIC Fast Freight Express makes the best time and affords the most rapid transit of freight between the Missouri River and all principal points of Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, San Juan and Arizona.
